

CONTENTS OF FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

We are now furnishing our readers a very large quantity of telegraphic matter; and as Congress and the Legislature are both in session, our trade space will not permit us to publish half of the interesting news coming to us daily in that part of the paper. We shall therefore, in future, put all the afternoon news, as transferred from the Evening Bulletin, on the fourth page of the Journal, and devote the first to a portion of the intelligence reaching us later in the day. This measure we give the

It will be ready for delivery to-morrow and will contain, in addition to the message, the proceedings of Congress during the first two days of the session.

BOOGES REPRESENTATIVES IN THE BELLVILLE CONVENTION.—The majority of the members who composed the Sovereignty Convention in proceeding to represent the loyal portion of our State does not require comment, but E. M. Bruce, hailing from Nicholas county, who was made a member of the Legislature, is not a citizen of the Nation or of Kentucky. His last residence, however, was in St. Louis. He was born in Flemingsburg, Ky., and has been trading and speculating in Kentucky, Indiana, and Missouri for several years. He left St. Louis last spring or summer on a visit to Carlisle with his family; he then proceeded to Nashville, Richmond, Charleston, and other Southern places, and then returned to Carlisle. In the fall he purchased himself to Nashville, with a view as he stated of making it his residence. Before the close of business on the railroad he had shipped large amounts of pork and other articles to Nashville, and then followed them himself, his wife and father leaving some time after for the same destination. And this man who is not entitled to a vote in Kentucky is in the rebel Council created at Russellville.

SHOCKING AFFAIR.—Ten or Twelve Kentucky Unarmed Burned by the Rebels.—We learn from the Nashville-Louisville Courier of the 20th inst., that, on the 25th a squad of twelve men were sent to Franklin, Ky., to arrest some Union men who were engaged in the manufacture of gunpowder. They had collected to the number of 12 or 15 at the home of one of their number, one Bell, and, dashing the party, fired upon them, killing one man, and so Lee of Louisville, and wounding one or two more. The rebels then charged the house and set fire to it, burning it and all of the men in it. It is believed, except two, who escaped. The Courier says a detachment of twenty-five cavalry under Capt. John Morgan arrived at Franklin on the 20th to arrest the parties implicated, but no one is so simple as to believe that any arrests will be made.

GOOD FOR THE GOURMETS.—When the Guthrie Greys started from Parkersburg for Louisville, it was found that the steamer Capito, upon which they embarked, had not its full crew, so the soldiers took hold and completely manned her, engaging to take the boat to Louisville. The Cincinnati Commercial says that Capt. "PICK" Russell, a printer of that city, and for many years a pilot on the river, stood watch on the other side of the river, the most of the time in his boat, and when the boat was taken by the rebels, he was the only one who escaped. The Courier is a detachment of twenty-five cavalry under Capt. John Morgan arrived at Franklin on the 20th to arrest the parties implicated, but no one is so simple as to believe that any arrests will be made.

A RUEFUL REPORT.—The employees in our office were entertained last evening by Messrs. Moore & Sonney at their new residence, on Fourth street, Louisville. A report of the meetings in our employ are of course, favorable to an amendment, and so is Mr. Moore, when we declare that it is well that they and we are not only gratified, but delighted, with the cold, and impudent, and dainty dishes set before us. Mr. Moore's first efforts as a cook are more than successful—they are brilliant, and Walker and Sonney may well indulge an anxiety for their laurels.

GOOD FOR THE SOLDIERS' Relief Association has been tendered by Mrs. Mattie Peel and her Campbell Minstrels, which will come off to-morrow night. This graceful act of charity by the lady should induce our citizens to give a hearty co-operation in carrying it out to a successful result. Let gentlemen call and purchase five dollars each, to help the relief of the Committee on Federal Relations.
